THE SPEAKERSHIP CONTEST

Will be Productive of Some Interes ing Complications-Whitney and Hill, and Cleveland and Patson Make Combinations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 9,-With the return of members of Congress to the city, the contest for the Speakershiof the Houre begins to assume local interest and importance. The fight for the position will be warm during the coming winter, and will undoubtedly have its effect even on the deliberations of the present House of Representatives, The most interesting phase of the discussion of the subject at this time is the quistion of relation to the contest for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in 1802.

One of the current bits of gossip is that an alliance may be formed between the east and the weet in the Speakership contest with a view to an arrangement for the Presidential nomination. Prominent Democratic strength of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Maryland, West Virginia, part of Pennsylvania and a part of tylinginia can be thrown for a Western candidate for the Speakership in exchange for western Speakership in exchange for western will less their cyceight. One of the current bits of gossip is Speakership in exchange for western votes for an eastern candidate for the Presidential nomination.

In Congress-L. L. Polk Interviewed on the Elections. Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—Mr. L. L. Polk, President of the Farmers' Alliance, is very jabilant over the result of the clections. In the course of an interview he said: "The Democrats and Record of the Circuit Court by 555 majority, and Clerk of the Circuit Court by 555 majority, and Clerk of the Circuit Court by 555 majority, and Clerk of the County Court by about 200 majority. publicans are claiming everything just now, but when they come to sift the chaff from the wheat they will find that the Farmers' Alliance had something to do with electing a fair proportion of the good men who will have seats in the next Congress. Up to the present time it is a certainty that that Congress will contain thirty-eight, straight Alliance. contain thirty-eight straight Alliance more who are pledged to us. The fight was no small affair. The extremists of both parties attacked us bitterly and gave much ground. It the South it was the Democrate who opposed us. In the North our most victorious antagonists were Republicans."

"Yet this was the jasue, plain and simple, brought about by the McKinley bill, and to the man Grover Cleveland, who three years ago boldly and fearless-lessly attacked this whole system, more than to any other, do we owe this victory. Never, for one moment, amidst all the abuse that was heaped upon him, did he falter or his courage fail. Be did he falter or his courage fail. Be position, believing that the Government had no right to take money from the had no right to take honey from the people colety for the benefit of a partic-ular class, he continued year after year, when others hesitated to battle for the right, and now when all are eager to join in the fray, certainly this fact that join in the fray, certainly this fact that ne dared to lead when scarcely any dared to follow shows the metal he is made of, and I believe that the whole people will see to it that he, and only he, shall be again chosen as their leader in '92. If ever man epoke the truth, surely he did, when he said a few days ago; 'No one has a better right to rejoice than I have.'"

What the Enguera Did. Cincago, Nov. 9 .- "The result in Michigan was as great a surprise to the Democrats as to the Republicans," said Senator Stockbridge to a reporter. "I do not think the dissatisfaction among disappointed office-seckers had much to do with it. I attribute it to the talk about the McKintey law. It was the granger vote that did the business, and we made the mistake of turning all efforts to the vites and towns while the Democrats cities and towns, while the Democrats shouted tariff robbery in the country." Ickinley arrived in the city last evening. Speaking to a reporter about the recent election he said:

"I am well satisfied with the result in my own district. I gained 2,600 votes during a campaign which lasted but three weeks. That was even more than I had any right to expect. It is certainly very gratifying to me,"
"What do you think of the result in the State?" was asked.
The Republican victory on the State ticket was released.

The Republican victory on the State ticket was spleadid. The unfairness of the gerrymander was manifested most clearly by the recent election. The Republicans carried the State by a popular majority of over 12 000, while the Democrate secured two-thirds of the Representatives in Congress, and the Republicans one-third. This shows the effect of the gerrymander very clearly."

THE PARKERSBURG CHIEF

Plays a Bridlant Engagement at Cinc Walle After a Prisoner. CINCINNATI, OHIO, Nov. 9.-The ger leman was evidently inebriated and in exuberance of good spirits. A gray slouch hat shaded his sharp and weazened, yet youthful features, which showed the marks of that excessive conviviality and the love of the drink that gives inspiration and jim-jams had placed there. "I've had a great time here!" remarked the gentleman to the Chief of Police, in whose office the conversation took place. "I've seen all there is in the town, and I'm ready to go back with my prisoner."

The visitor left in a hang-dog manner, and soon afterwards told the reporters that he didn't like Cincinnati as well as Parkersburg, anyhow. "That Chief of yours rousted me from base," he explained.

Capt. H. L. Dils, Chief of Police of Parkersburg. That is the gentleman who introduced himself in so novel a manner. He had come for Frank Bush, a desperate and powerful burglar, and

He strived here yesterday morning, and had introduced himself at the Palace Hotel by flashing his badge and flourishing a revolver, merely to prove that he was every inch a man. Full of courage and beer he had applied to Chief Deitsch for permission to take Bush out for a walk, a request that was denied from an apprehension that Captain Dils would never more be heard from.

He could give them assurance that there had never been such a calm in international politics as at the present. He had no anxiety as to the immediate future, and was confident that peace would be maintained for long time to come.

The Chancellor affair has been settled, as Signor Crispi depnanded. The autograph letter from Emperor William to King Humbert, of which the Chancellor was the bearer, alluded to the Chancellor was the bearer, alluded to the Chancellor service in executing Germany's fareign policy, and said the Emperor agreed with him.

The reports that the Chancellor mooted combined reprisals against the United States because of the MtKinley bill are unfounded. They emanate from Vienna. The Austrian papers are still hankering after retaliation, although the negotiations here for a commercial coalition suited them. Italy is least affected by the bill of any European States. She would not risk offending America to satisfy a doubtful ally. The Chancellor will return by way of St. Gothard in time to prepare for the opening of the Landtag on Wednesday. Several reforms that are certain to be promised in the speech from the throne will be seriously opposed, A reduction in the tariffs on wheat and rye and a reform in the communal laws aiming at the abolition of old feudal rights will be fiercely contested by the old Conservatives.

The Emperor, according to the belief in the ministerial circles, is determined to make no concessions. If the lower house refuses to accept the projected reforms as proposed, the government will be dissolved without delay. in the ministerial circles, is determined to make no concessions. A RARE INCIDENT the Bistory of the London Stock Exchange-Effect of the New Tariff.

London, Nov. 9.—A rare incident in the history of the stock exchange occurred during the past week. It was the action of the committee in expelling from the institution Percival Presston, a broker, for breach of faith with a client. It seems that the client had ordered Presston to sell alarge parcel of Mexican securities, but the broker, disregarding the interests of his client, first sold for himself thus specifies his.

PEARL-WORKERS SAP.

They are in a Desperate Condition Owing to Paris, Nov. 9.—A Vienna telegram tates that the mother-of-pearl-workers are in a desperate condition owing to the new American tariff. An exhibition of their wares is about to be made for their benefit to tide them over the winter months. Specimens of their work have been collected throughout the continent.

Consul General King is to be given a banquet at the Grand Hotel Monday night, in which he will be welcomed and congratulated on his appointment to Paris.

London Money Market. London, Nov. 9 .- There was a good demand for discount during the past week and rates were firm at 5725. Fears week and retes were firm at 5735. Fears prevail that the Bink of Eagland rate will be further advanced, the bullion being inadequate to meet the continuous decline of gold. The stock exchange was exceedingly unsettled during the week, and the settlement commencing next Tuesday causes much unessiness. The persistentshrintage of values which has tried the resources of the strongest firms, and the recent private arrangements of unmet accounts have loaded bankers and brokers with unmarketable securities. American railroads early in the week showed symptons of a recovery, but broke down under the bear attack initiated in New York. Some selling here preceded the collapse. Friday after the bank rate was announced was the worst day known in the American department here in many years. Yesterday's business showed a marked abatement of selling. Some investing in the better class of stocks also tended to strengthen quotations.
